

FULL TIME TECHNICAL ASSISTANT

Are you proactive, enthusiastic and technically minded? Do you love learning how things work? Do you enjoy thinking on your feet to solve problems and not mind getting your hands dirty as you do so? If this sounds like you, then you could be our next Technical Assistant!

Location: The Royal Mile, Edinburgh, EH1 2NE
Pay: Starting rate of £8.58 per hour
Hours: 36.25 hours per week (rota based, includes weekends)

You will already be:

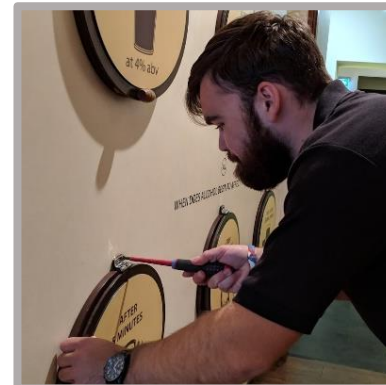

- Experienced in carrying out basic maintenance and fabric works
- Acutely aware of Health and Safety issues
- Flexible in your approach and a keen problem solver
- Experienced in working in support of other departments
- Confident in communicating clearly with customers and colleagues

Ideally, you will have experience in a technical, maintenance or trade role, but if you can show us you have the passion and skills to succeed then experience isn't essential.

The role will require you to:

- Work closely with your four technical team colleagues
- Liaise with and assist other departments in a friendly and helpful manner
- Carry out daily building checks and ongoing maintenance projects
- Investigate any problems and think on your feet to solve them
- Learn about our unique car-ride, and undertake its repairs and regular servicing
- Assist with plumbing, lighting, decorating and carpentry works as required
- Prioritise personal, colleague and customer safety in everything you do

In turn, we will develop you through regular coaching and training, and encourage you to gain the skills required to reach Senior Technical Assistant level.
